The Big Question

- Where most deals die?
- Which rep is secretly the star?
- Which product is secretly carrying revenue?
- ...with just one dataset?

Dashboard 1 – Executive Snapshot

Executive Summary: High-Level Sales Performance KPIs

The First Surprise Finding

We're losing almost as many deals as we're winning

2,470 lost opportunities (28% of total pipeline)

This represents significant revenue leakage that could be recovered

Win rate: 48% vs Loss rate: 28%

Dashboard 2: The People

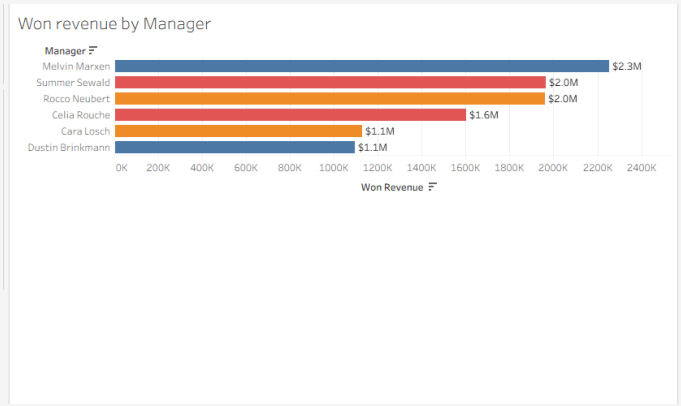

Performance Analytics: Who's Really Winning the Sales Game?

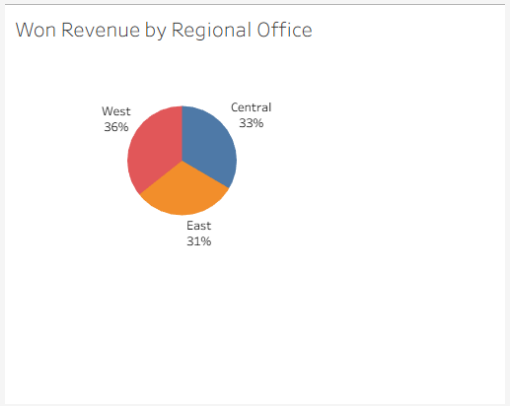

What to focus on: This dashboard reveals who drives the most revenue, who closes deals most efficiently, and how performance varies across regions and managers. Look for patterns in win rates, revenue concentration, and regional distribution.

Manager & Regional Context

Performance distribution across leadership and geography

Won Revenue by Manager

Melvin Marxen	$2.3M
Summer Sewald	$2.0M
Rocco Neubert	$2.0M

Key Insight: Melvin leads with 23% of total revenue ($10M), showing strong team leadership and deal execution.

Won Revenue by Regional Office

West	36%
Central	33%
East	31%

Key Insight: West region outperforms by 5 percentage points, suggesting stronger market conditions or sales strategies worth replicating.

Star Rep vs Efficient Closer

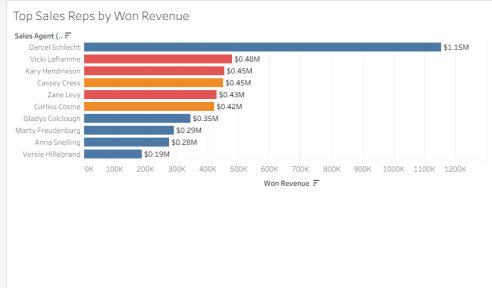

Comparing Top Revenue vs. Top Efficiency Performance

Key Insight: Two paths to success — Darcel wins through volume (high activity, more deals closed), while Reed wins through precision (elite conversion rate, fewer but higher-quality closes).

Darcel Schlecht

$1.15M won revenue

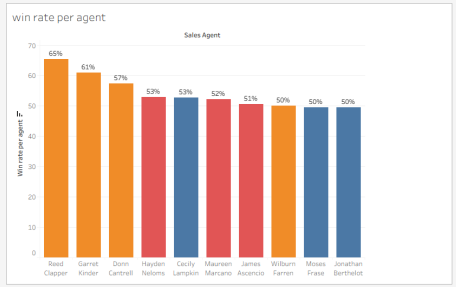

High volume + solid win % — the "activity champion"

Reed Clapper

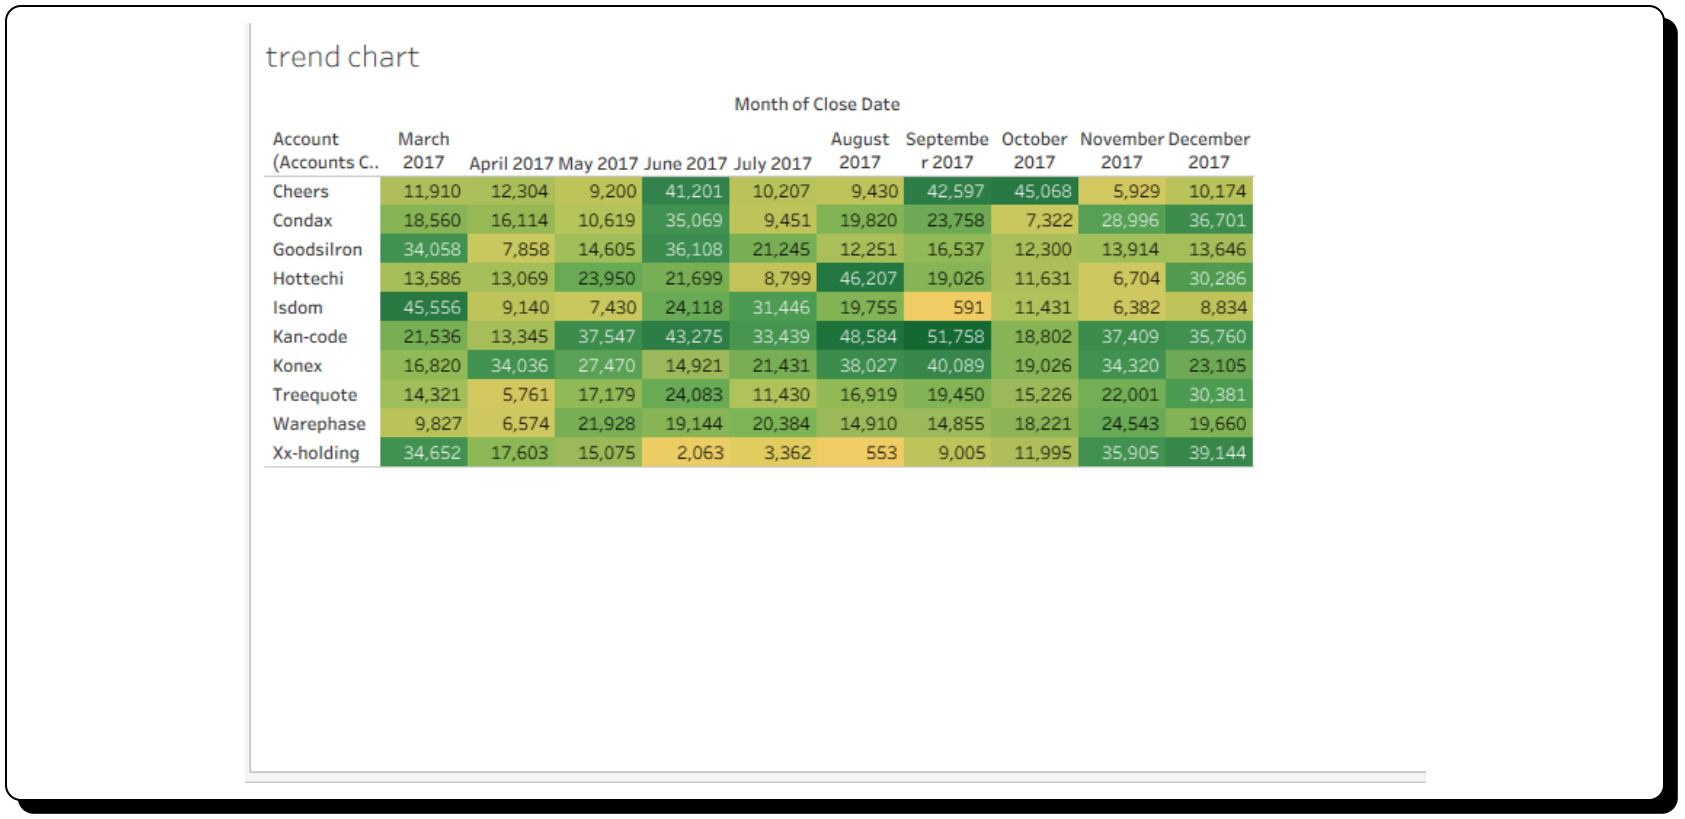

65% win rate

Elite closer — the "efficiency master"

Green cells indicate consistently strong account performance, while lighter colors reveal declining engagement. This visualization helps identify at-risk customer relationships and seasonal patterns across our key accounts throughout 2017.

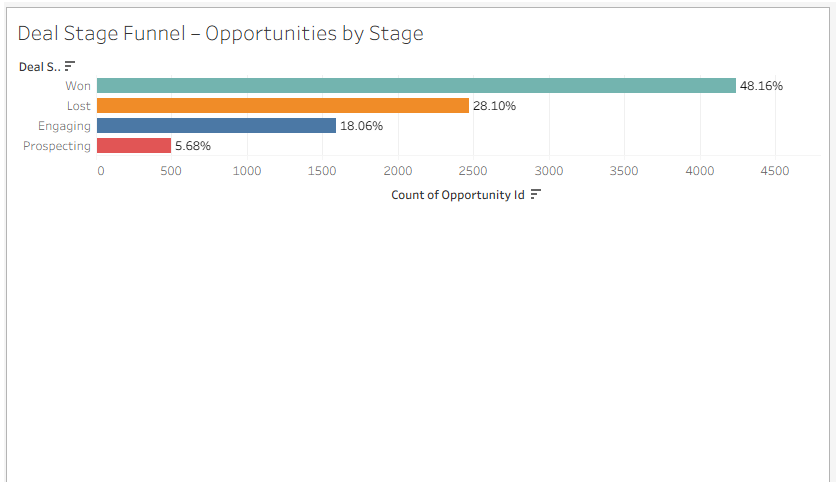

Dashboard 3 – Process & Products

Process Bottlenecks & Product Performance Analysis

What This Dashboard Reveals: This comprehensive view shows where deals get stuck in our pipeline, which products are driving revenue, and how sales cycles vary by deal size. Key insights include funnel drop-off points, regional sales trends, product performance rankings, and the correlation between deal value and time to close.

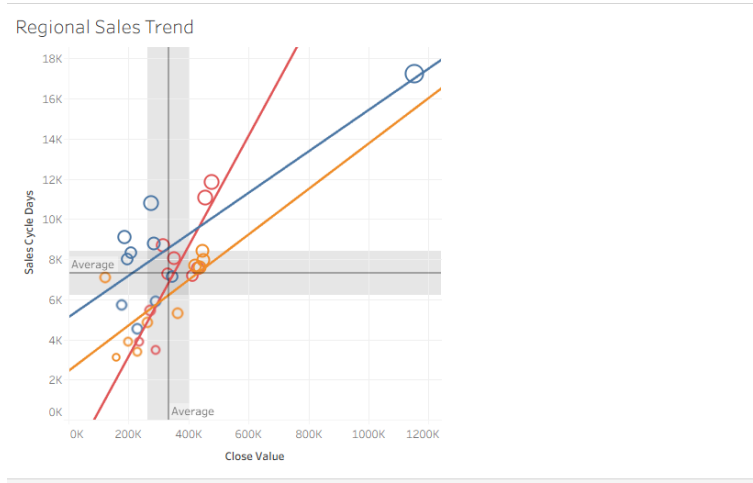

Where Deals Die + Cycle vs Value

Deal Stage Distribution:

Won: 48.16%
Lost: 28.10%
Engaging: 18.06%
Prospecting: 5.68%

Regional Sales Trend

Sales cycle days vs close value analysis

Critical Finding: 40-50% of deals die between Prospecting → Engaging stages, revealing our qualification process needs immediate improvement

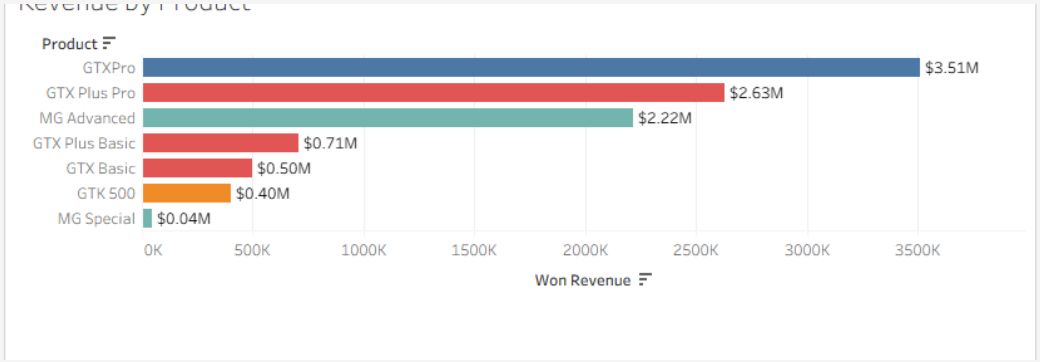

Big Deal Insight: Deals >$500K require 60-120+ days to close—larger opportunities need more patience and strategic nurturing

GTX Products Revenue Analysis

GTX products = almost 80% of all revenue

The Story: Just 3 products—GTX Pro ($3.51M), GTX Plus Pro ($2.63M), and MG Advanced ($2.22M)—drive nearly 80% of our total revenue. This heavy concentration means we're highly dependent on these premium offerings. The opportunity? Double down on what works. The risk? If demand shifts or competition intensifies, our revenue base is vulnerable.
